Gov. McIntyre Orders the Sheriff to Ferret Out and Arrest
the Lynchers.

WALSBURG, Colo., March 14.—Six lives have been taken as the result of the killing of Abner Hixon in a most brutal manner at Rouse last Sunday night. Five of the killed are Italian miners and Hixon's alleged assailants, the other being Joe Welby, who was driving four Italians to jail in a wagon when he met his death.

The dead are, the first four being in the hands of the coroner:
Antonio Lorenzo, 35 years of age, married, with wife and three children; the opinion of intention of becoming an American citizen.
Francisco Rancetto, 37 years of age, unmarried; declared intention of becoming an American citizen.
Joe Welby, 23 years of age, unmarried.
Pietro Giacchino, 34 years of age, young man living here; said to have taken out first papers.

Antonio Zapetto, 24 years of age, married; wife and three children in Italy; first papers taken out.
When the three Italians captured from the wagon at Bear Creek bridge, where Welby was killed, were taken to the jail, they were met by a mob of about 100 men, who proceeded to the excitement to subside and then came to the county jail here and a few minutes before 1 o'clock in the morning commenced the killing of the prisoners.

A coroner's jury investigated the killing of Welby, and rendered a verdict that he met his death by the hands of a mob, and excused themselves. The opinion of intention of becoming an American citizen. It is believed to be unlikely that the men who did the killing will ever be definitely known only among themselves. The opinion prevails that the mob of six or eight men were Rouse miners and personal friends of Hixon; men of bad character, of prominence in the community.

Hixon's funeral took place this morning, and just about the time his coffin was lowered into the grave the body of the fourth man who met his death was found.

OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Messages Between Gov. McIntyre and the Italian Consul.

DENVER, Colo., March 14.—Gov. McIntyre yesterday received simultaneously from the authorities at Washington and the Italian Consul at this point inquiries concerning the Walsburg lynchings.

The communication from Washington was a telegram from Acting Secretary of State Uhl, asking for particulars, and that from Acting Italian Consul Cuneo at this point a demand for protection for any Italian citizens who might be in danger in Walsburg.

Immediately the Governor directed a telegram to the Sheriff of Huerfano, demanding full particulars of the lynchings, together with a statement of the feeling at the moment prevalent. To Washington the Governor detailed such particulars, and then had and promised the fullest protection to all. He also said it is probable that the Italian lynchings had American citizens. A dispatch was sent to the commander of the army at Fort Huachuca, asking him to report immediately and exactly on what notice he could put his command in the field and the authorities at the point were asked in a telegram in what length of time a special train could be furnished and sent to the scene of the riot, and that within three hours of an order issuing the Pueblo troops could be landed in Walsburg.

Following is a copy of the communication passing between the acting Italian department and the acting Italian Consul:
To His Excellency, Governor McIntyre, Sir: I have from reliable authority that at or near the town of Walsburg, Colo., this morning about 10 o'clock, two Italian citizens taken from the jail by a mob and lynched, and also that there are seven more men supposed to be Italian still in the custody of the authorities of Huerfano County, who are threatened to be lynched still in the custody of the authorities of Huerfano County. It is necessary to insure protection for the life and property of the Italians in custody of the authorities of Huerfano County. Very respectfully your obedient servant,
J. CUNEO, M. D., Acting Italian Consul.

DENVER, March 13.

HEROES OF HAYTI.

President Hippolyte and the Job Lots Called an Army.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE POST-DISPATCH.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, March 14.—Gen. Hippolyte, President of the Republic of Hayti, has led his whole army out of the capital in order to fight the rebels in the open country. He was afraid that if he remained with his troops in the City of Port au Prince the insurgents might surround him and bottle him up.

Hayti's army, under the law of reorganization, consists nominally of about 7,000 men, chiefly infantry. There is besides a small body of cavalry, and a few artillerymen. The body guard of the President is every seven men, who act as aides-de-camp to the President. The navy consists of a small number of third-rate cruisers, which does not venture in the open sea.

A correspondent at Port au Prince reports the army on parade. He writes: "In front of the President's residence, the army of 7,000 men, under the law of reorganization, consists nominally of about 7,000 men, chiefly infantry. There is besides a small body of cavalry, and a few artillerymen. The body guard of the President is every seven men, who act as aides-de-camp to the President. WILL SHE PAY IN GOLD OR SILVER.

The World's Financiers Interested in China's War Debt.

MAY BE PAID IN WHITE METAL.

The Price Advancing and Hoarding Begun in Anticipation of the Transaction.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH.
NEW YORK, March 14.—A new menace to the financial system of the United States has suddenly come into being. The price of silver advanced 14 cents an ounce yesterday, following a similar advance in London, due to the beginning of hoarding here and abroad in anticipation of immense financial transactions when China begins to pay the war indemnity demanded by Japan of $200,000,000.

Will China have to pay in silver or in gold? In whatever coin the effect upon the United States will be subject to a new and greater drain than any in its history. The drain that Morgan and Belmont will be powerless to stop.

Financiers with world-wide reputation, such as the Bankers of London and the great Berlin, London and Paris banking houses, have already begun to figure on the great profits of a loan to China. Diplomatic approaches are making to get on the inside. The commissions will be enormous. The importance to American financiers is given to the preliminary from the promise that the Americans are taking in the approaches between the Chinese and Japanese diplomats.

Mr. Edwin Kemmerly, who has his residence in Tokyo on one side, and Minister Charles Denby in Peking on the other, seem to possess the most intimate knowledge of the situation. It is believed that their offices will be sought in this crisis by the representatives of the United States. One courier, Chester Holcomb, has already been sent to the Chinese capital. Mr. Holcomb is a skilled linguist in many Chinese dialects. He has been in Peking for many years. He has written a book on "The Real China," describing the country not as he seems, but as he is. The book is just on the eve of publication in the city.

Mr. Holcomb was very busy seeing through the press when he was suddenly called upon to take the trip to Japan. BIG WIND IN THE FIJI ISLANDS.
Suva, the Capital City, Almost Wholly Destroyed.

THE WORST STORM IN YEARS
All Coconut and Banana Plantations
Are Ruined, and the People Are in Want.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 14.—The Australian mail brings details of a terrible hurricane which swept over the Fiji Islands a few weeks ago and the first effects of which were still a topic of interesting discussion when the steamer Mirrows touched at Suva. It was in this storm that several large vessels came to grief with lamentable loss of life and buildings in Suva, the capital of Fiji, suffered very severely.

The town is comparatively in debris, having been the center of the hurricane. Most of the damage appears to have been done about 8 o'clock in the morning of February 22nd, when the storm broke over the town. The hurricane was accompanied by a fearful rain, penetrating everything. The storm continued until about 10 o'clock, Monday afternoon and then gradually calmed down.

During the full moon of the storm, the town was stripped of foliage and on every hand were seen the ruins of houses and plantations. The coconut plantations will take five years to recover and banana plantations have been totally ruined. The past year had been a thoroughly successful one for the business people were looking forward to a few years of prosperity, coconut sugar being only recently recovered from past losses.

This is reported to be the most serious hurricane to be met with in the Pacific since the island of Java, on which most of the European planters are settled, has been swept from top to bottom.

The Union Steamship Company's Oahu has been blown down where there is absolutely no shelter. When the hurricane broke over the island, the ship was among the most dangerous patch of reefs in the group, known as the Ringold Reefs, about five miles from the shore.

On Monday morning what a sight the island presented. All houses in the native town were leveled, nearly all the mill cottages down or broken, and blown away. The whole place had just the appearance of a desert. The houses were blown away, and the people were being strewn with nuts, looking like cannon balls, only no cannon could have caused such devastation which was everywhere seen.

Bank Doors Closed.
DUBOIS, Pa., March 14.—The Bank of Dubois of this city closed its doors today. No statement has yet been given out, but the depositors are all in a state of alarm. The bank was established several weeks ago and is under liquidation. There has been a quiet run on it, and all school district funds were deposited in it.

"FINANCIERS."

It is not surprising to learn that the

"financiers" of Berlin and other German cities have lodged a protest with Chan-ciller Hohenlohe against the calling of an international monetary conference. It was the "financiers" who in 1871 committed Germany to the single gold standard. As dealers in money they naturally wanted it made dear. They will fight with all their might to keep it dear.

And they will have the assistance of the "massifiers" of all the rest of the world. Lombard street and Wall street will heartily back up Bleichroder and his associates in trying to defeat a conference. If, in spite of their protest, a conference is called, they will use their combined and powerful influence to defeat its purpose.

The money power of England in particular will battle desperately against any attempt to make money less dear.

Mr. Mulhall estimates that at the present time England has loans out to the peoples amounting in the aggregate to not less than $15,000,000,000 (fifteen billion dollars). The value of these loans measured by commodities has increased not less than 35 per cent in the last twenty years. Naturally England, as the great creditor nation, wants money made dear and kept dear. And the selfish interest of all the rest of the "financiers" is with her.

We believe, however, that the international conference will be held. And whether held or not, the cause of bimetallism is sure to win in the long run.

For twenty years the "financiers" have had their innings. It is now the people's turn.

A SUSPICIOUS COMPROMISE.

The proposition to compromise the city's claim against the Edison Illuminating Co. under the 5 per cent ordinance will hardly bear analysis.

The ordinance embodying the compromise, which has been favorably reported to the Council, provides for the payment of $25,000 cash and $7,500 per annum for the remaining term of the franchises of the Missouri and Municipal electric lighting companies in lieu of all claims of the city under the ordinance requiring the companies to pay 5 per cent of their gross receipts into the treasury.

The total amount the city will receive through this compromise is $62,500. But the Missouri and Municipal companies, which the Edison Illuminating Co. has absorbed, owe the city about $100,000 of back taxes. The tax on the Missouri's gross receipts for last year amounted to $18,853.80, and on the Municipal's gross receipts for the year previous, the last available returns, amounted to $6,553.80.

If the receipts should not increase in five original companies and its plans for a municipal subway.

A compromise with a corporation for the reduction of a tax obligation is always suspicious. The fact that the company is willing to accept the compromise indicates a lack of confidence in the soundness of its claim to exemption. If it were sure that it could not be compelled to pay a cent it would not offer a cent. Its offer to pay $62,500 indicates its belief that it can be made to pay the full amount.

This compromise is particularly investigable, because it involves compensations which may impair the city's future control of conduit privileges and its power to dispose of the franchises of these companies under the contract at the expiration of their terms.

The wisest policy for the city authorities is to insist upon the law and the full rights of the municipality.

In the matter of Want Ads the Post-

Not only is the number of ads inserted rapidly increasing, but the number little and will bring results.

POOR OLD CHICAGO.

Having awakened and discovered that

St. Louis is taking her trade, Chicago is now engaged in a frantic effort to devise a plan to get it back again. True to the Chicago disposition, her first thought is of boudie. She suspects that

St. Louis bribed the merchants to come and buy goods and she is hastily collecting a slush fund to lure them back again.

It is true that buyers who come to St.

Louis are paid for purchasing here. They freely admitted it in the columns of the Post-Dispatch. They are handsomely paid in lower prices, better goods and more courteous treatment than they could get in Chicago. These inducements never entered the sordid minds of the Porkopolis merchants, whose motto has always been, "Get all you can."

The simple fact is that the country merchants are weary of the knock-down-and-drag-out methods of Chicago business men. They found a better market, honest dealing and courteous treatment in St. Louis. The inevitable result is the turning towards St. Louis of the tide of business which has hitherto gone to Chicago. No amount of slush funds, though plotted mountain high, can stop it.

The situation emphasizes the statement of the Post-Dispatch that the future of St. Louis lies before her and the future of Chicago lies behind her.

THE MENACE OF ELECTION FRAUDS.

Members of the State Legislature from the country districts who regard city election laws as a matter of indifference to them and their constituents labor under gross error.

St. Louis and Kansas City will cast in the next election about 125,000 votes, which are more than one-fifth of the total vote of the State. They hold the balance of power in the State. Under laws which favor frauds in elections the political bosses of these two cities, or of one of them, may determine the political complexion of the State government and the electoral vote of the State.

It is vain to expect partisan advantage from fraud-favoring laws. The corrupt bosses and bootleggers of municipal politics are non-partisan. They play into each other's hands and are always ready to betray their parties at any time for personal ends. Opportunity for election fraud in any part of the State, and especially in large cities where votes may be heaped in blocks, is a menace to the State.

The legislators no longer have the excuse that a satisfactory election bill cannot be had. The Senate compromise bill embodies all the essential points for a good election law. It provides the safeguards which were from the beginning of the agitation for election reform pointed out and advocated by the Post-

Dispatch as necessary to the prevention of election rascality. It provides for fresh registration at every election, small precincts, precinct registration, revision and posting. It does not require the courts to dabble in politics.

The failure of the Legislature to ac-sequence the former confusion and high prices will prevail, since the contracts are to terminate before the meeting of the next General Assembly.

It is estimated that the work of the commission has already saved nearly half a million dollars to the people of Missouri, and that the law has proven beneficial in every particular. It should be restored without question, and we hope the House will now take up the Senate bill on this subject and pass it.
There is no time for delay or argument.
And there is no need for discussing the matter. It is a proposition so plainly in the interest of the common people that its defeat by the House has caused universal astonishment.

The policy of geographical restriction in dealing with the social evil endorsed by the Evangelical Alliance and advocated by the Post-Dispatch has been approved by the State Legislature. The bill to restrict disreputable houses within the boundaries of a district fixed by the Board of Police Commissioners has passed both houses. The Post-Dispatch believes that the Legislature has opened the way for the best solution of the difficulties besetting the authorities in dealing with the social evil. Practical problems will have to be met in putting the plan into operation, but they can be satisfactorily worked out, and the result will tend to minimize the vicious influences of the evil.

If Zella Nicolaus had been called before the Grand Jury to tell what she knows about the police, her story would be highly interesting to Supt. Byrnes. There is good reason to believe that in the "services" rendered in this case Mr. Byrnes repaid a large part of that $350,000 won for him by Jay Gould and George Gould in the Wall street stakes.

Handsome presents were bestowed upon the distinguished Republicans of the Indiana Legislature who assaulted the Governor's private secretary. The lottery of assassination, it seems, has less blanks than the ordinary scheme.

Mr. Carlisle cannot increase the Treasury funds by paying money to the Union Pacific while that road is owing the Government so much. Whenever a Democratic official follows a Republican precedent, the Government is a loser.

As Atty.-Gen. Olney has gone so far as to recognize the rights of a State, hopeful citizens may begin to think that he will shortly take a club and get after the trusts. This, however, would be carrying optimism a long way.

The Atlanta Exposition is already in trouble. The women threaten to boycott it if liquors are sold. In the meantime, $100,000 is offered for the beer privilege alone. Evidently the summer in Atlanta is going to be warm.

Should the Chinese happen to pull out the Treasury plug with their indemnity, the Belmont-Morgan syndicate will doubtless consider themselves free from blame. The hole will be there, though, all the same.

The New York Assembly has saved the Empire State from the disgrace which Gerry and the Senate would have brought upon it. It defeated the Whipple bill by a small but sufficient majority.

The Whisky Trust is undoubtedly confident that Atty.-Gen. Olney has no intention of resigning and thus making room for a Cabinet officer who would attempt to enforce the anti-trust laws.

Representative Julian's attempt to make the lobbyists pay rent for their occupancy of the "Third House" seems a little hard considering that they have paid the rent for so many others.

Mr. McKinley does well to keep Millionaire Hanna close to him. Next to a campaign for the Presidency itself, the campaign for the nomination may be made expensive.

A Republican organ notes with glee that the Republicans are not engaged in forming a new party. Why should they?
The Populist party is only a few years old.

With all due respect for the judgment of Mr. Sibley, the best and proper place to nominate a bimetallic candidate for the Presidency is in the next Democratic National Convention.

The effort of the Indiana Legislature to close its session with murder ought not to be imitated by the other slum Legislatures.

Will the odor of Chicago politics be improved by the nomination of the President of her stench canal directors for Mayor?

In addition to being a Western man, the next President should not be much of a duck hunter.

If Justice fees were Justice fees they could not be more evanescent.

the active business interests of the city and is city that year, the entire local Republican ticket being elected.

Mrs. Sally Pratt McLean Greene, whose

Cheap Text-Books.
From the Scotland County Democrat.

The Missouri Text Book Commission expires next year. Gov. Stone has called upon the Legislature to make provision for its continuance. The Legislature should also do something to reduce the wholesale price of school books. Under the present system the publisher fixes his price so as to yield himself an enormous profit, but the retailer is permitted to charge scarcely enough above cost to pay his freight, although the latter takes all risks on account of the credit system so common in the rural districts. There is no good reason why a school book bound in boards should sell for double the price of a novel well bound in cloth. Cheapen the school books.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

Effect of Collection Charges on Country Checks.

THE BANKS ACTED HASTILY.

Merchants Say That Their Customers Threaten to Transfer Their Custom to Chicago—Some Have Done So.

The banks of St. Louis in rescinding the peremptory order charging for Eastern exchange on Monday were under the impression that the matter was ended, but they are mistaken, as that part of the order which was allowed to stand was the more objectionable of the two. It is claimed by merchants that those banks which were most active in pushing the Clearing House Association to pass the order charging for collecting country checks, are the very ones who originally threw off the charge in their effort to get business away from the other banks.

Notwithstanding the statement of the bankers to the contrary, some houses are now carrying accounts in Chicago and other cities, and among the grocery houses several checks are received from the same town on the same day the checks are sent to the banks of that town with a request for remittance in St. Louis exchange. About 18 checks were sent in this way last week by one house, and the total of all the charges made by the country banks was just 25 cents on the 16, proving conclusively that collection charges were not of such an oppressive character as to put the stock of any bank below par.

One of the largest wholesale grocers said that he could hardly expect his bank to accept his business for nothing, yet the change which went into effect March 1, compelling the payment of exchange was a hardship, especially so on the grocery business, where the aggregate of checks was much smaller than in any other line. Any radical change of the kind was very apt to work hardship, as all changes are disagreeable, and he could not tell just what the result would be of the circular he had sent out requesting his bank to remit with paper worth par in St. Louis. He was inclined to believe that country merchants would vigorously "kick," and that many might be weaned away from the market. It was rather hard on a grocer to sell for instance a single bag of sugar at say 4 cents per pound and to receive in payment a check on Cranberry Centre or some other remote point on which the charge was 10 cents. Since March 1 he had kept a record of his deposits and he found that the charge on the small checks, and for the first eight days they amounted to an average of $1 per day, or a total at the end of the week of $8. Still competition was so very hot between houses as well as between distributing points that it was out of the question to be arbitrary in matters of this kind. He showed the reporter a letter from an interior merchant, who said that he had been waiting for sixty days before putting the rule into operation, in order that the feeling of the customers could be ascertained.

"If you can't take our checks at face value we can find some one who will," he said, making this charge then it would be an easy matter to settle, but any active points in the banks were telling the merchants to "educate" their customers, while the merchants in town felt that the bank should take the wait for sixty days before putting the rule into operation, in order that the feeling of the customers could be ascertained.

The financial man of one of the largest local dry goods houses told the Post-Dispatch reporter that although the business men could hardly ask the banks to do their business for nothing, the charge was a hardship, especially so on the grocery business, where the aggregate of checks was much smaller than in any other line. Any radical change of the kind was very apt to work hardship, as all changes are disagreeable, and he could not tell just what the result would be of the circular he had sent out requesting his bank to remit with paper worth par in St. Louis. He was inclined to believe that country merchants would vigorously "kick," and that many might be weaned away from the market. It was rather hard on a grocer to sell for instance a single bag of sugar at say 4 cents per pound and to receive in payment a check on Cranberry Centre or some other remote point on which the charge was 10 cents. Since March 1 he had kept a record of his deposits and he found that the charge on the small checks, and for the first eight days they amounted to an average of $1 per day, or a total at the end of the week of $8. Still competition was so very hot between houses as well as between distributing points that it was out of the question to be arbitrary in matters of this kind. He showed the reporter a letter from an interior merchant, who said that he had been waiting for sixty days before putting the rule into operation, in order that the feeling of the customers could be ascertained.

Another prominent wholesale grocer said: "The summary action taken by the St. Louis banks is going to be very detrimental, especially to the city of the West, and are merchants. I have to-day received three letters, in answer to our notice of the action of our banks, the notice not being arbitrary but simply requesting them when possible to conform to the ruling."

"One of my correspondents writes: 'I note what you say in your circular. I will say I am already doing my business with your city for these reasons. I have spoken to your traveling salesman and he has spoken to your goods bought by me. I would not like to check as usual and if not satisfactory I will send you draft to close my account, as all other jobs are done on draft, and I am surprised at your allowing your bankers to retrograde and injure your city by the summary action which they have taken. We know of no other market that has taken such an arbitrary step, and in future, until matters are changed, it will take large and extra inducements to keep us looking your way for supplies.'

"The other correspondent also finds fault, claiming that it is brought up to them on nearly every side, and that it is not a matter of demanding this additional cost of doing business. I feel that the banks have acted very hastily in this matter, and that they have brought present conditions upon themselves and the merchants through their competition for business. Having created the disease and taken ten years to bring on the crisis, it is not good business judgment, from a merchant's standpoint, for them to sacrifice their patrons for their personal benefit."

JESSE ARNOT'S BACK.

Hired, Stolen and Deserted by Gay Republican Politicians.

Jesse Arnot's stable on Chestnut, between Ninth and Tenth streets, was once a horse and rig for two or three hours last night, until it was recovered by the aid of the police. It was engaged till 8 o'clock by some Republican politicians to carry three voters to the primary election poll. It is a rule in such cases that vehicles be paid for in advance. The reason of this arbitrary rule is that the man who carries the voters before the election is sometimes hard to find afterwards, and if he is found he is found to be suffering from consumption.

In the present case the rig was dispatched in care of a man who refused to give his name, and who was considered an extraneous, and they knew no other. As frequently happens, after the election, the "boys" got hilarious and induced "Red" to take a glass of beer near Twenty-third and Montgomery. They then rammed with the back several hours later it was found not far away. It was deserted. No arrests were made.

At Jonesboro.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. JONESBORO, Ark., March 14.—The Jonesboro Board of Health to-day issued a quarantine against Brinkley and Memphis, and all towns south of here. This action was prompted by the receipt of a telegram from the Mayor of Brinkley announcing smallpox in that city.

Great interest attaches to the coming entertainment of the McGrew Guards, which will be on the 15th at the Germania Theater, for the benefit of the Provident Association, in which everybody is interested. An excellent programme is being rehearsed for the occasion. Robyn's operetta "Beans and Buttons" will be given, with Miss Ruth Thayer, Miss Esther Hodges, Mr. Harry Hoffman and Mr. Bill in the cast. Mrs. George Lee Cunningham will sing, Mrs. Robyn will give a piano recital, the Apollo Club will give two numbers and there will be several other good features. Even when printing is advertised, this letter says, the advertisement is delayed until the last moment and certain brands of paper are demanded.

JACKET MAKERS WIN.

Employers Concede All the Demands of the Strikers.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Four thousand children's jacket-makers, who have been on strike for more than a month for a new scale of wages, have returned to work, contractors having made a complete surrender.

There were about 1,000 girls concerned in the strike. The union used them as pickets with great success. They reported promptly at headquarters, at No. 228 Stanton street. In fact, they did their work so well that it was impossible for contractors to fill the places of the strikers. Samuel Cohen, leader of the strike, said he owned much to the girls. His sister, "Betty," made a little speech to the girls yesterday, and they all cried "Hurrah!" at the top of their voices, and gave three cheers for the union.

NAILED THE DOOR.

Latest Phase of the Row in the Indiana Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 14.—Myron D. King, the Governor's Private Secretary, who was injured in the riot at the House of Representatives Monday night, is no better. The authorities say that the men who were conspicuous in the riot are all well known and are not likely to leave the State. It is understood that warrants would be issued within the next twenty-four hours. The custodian bill, over which the riot occurred, is still missing. The Secretary of State takes the position that he must print the bill in the established acts of the Legislature, notwithstanding it cannot be found. He says the records of the two Houses show that the bill was regularly passed, and was signed by the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker. The engrossed copy of the bill is on file with the State Librarian, and the copy for the book of acts will be made from it. A suit at law to test the legality of the act will follow the action of the Secretary of State. In the meantime the Democratic custodian and his twenty-nine floor scrubbers are still holding office.

It is discovered that the doors to the gallery of the hall of the House of Representatives had been securely nailed Monday night, indicating that all the doorknockers in the House were in the conspiracy.

THEY TALK OF A DUEL.

Walter Scott Hale and Thomas Gilroy Jr., at Outs.

HAVERHILL, Mass., March 14.—Walter Scott Hale of Haverhill confirms the report that Thomas Gilroy, Jr., of the City of New York, son of ex-Mayor Gilroy, and Hale's brother-in-law, had, as the result of a violent quarrel in the cafe of the Parker House, Boston, challenged Hale to fight a duel, and that the challenge was accepted. The quarrel occurred through personal charges and counter charges resulting from young Hale's endeavor to have his mother removed as his guardian. Hale states that he, accompanied by a friend, Sidney W. Young of Haverhill, went to New York early in the week to notify Hale's mother of the action in removing her as guardian. She was found at the home of ex-Mayor Gilroy, and her counsel, Mr. Badger, was present at the interview between her and her son, during which the lawyer told Hale that he had threatened to break every bone in his body. Hale and Young reached Boston on their return yesterday morning, and repairing at once to the cafe of the Parker House called for Gilroy, who, with his wife, was a guest at the hotel. When Gilroy appeared, Hale accused him of living on money from Hale's income. Gilroy applied that he could not have anything to do at that time with Hale, as Hale was his physical superior. Hale, however, insisted on having pistols at any New York hotel. Hale accepted the challenge, but declared that he would fight nowhere but in the vicinity of Boston.

Gilroy refused to meet Hale except in New York and an exchange of epithets occurred during which a crowd gathered and Gilroy engaged to his room. Hale stated that he is prepared to fight at any time, but not within 100 miles of New York.

GILROY DEPLORES IT. BOSTON, Mass., March 14.—Thos. F. Gilroy, Jr., of New York, who figured in reports about a proposed duel, was seen at the hotel last night. He deplored the fact that the affair had reached such an exciting stage and said that Hale, his brother-in-law, alone was responsible for the outbreak. "Hale is mad," said Gilroy, "because I am acting as guardian for his mother, and he will be sorry for this act when he cools down."

As to the fighting of a duel, he did not propose to do any such thing while he had his senses, he said.

WILL LOOK INTO THE CRATER.

A Scientific Commission May Go to Observe Orizaba.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

MEXICO CITY, March 14.—Orizaba, which is reported to be in a mild state of eruption, was classed among the active volcanoes a century ago. But it has been quiet so long that it is in the class of those pronounced extinct. Some scientists even profess to doubt the stories that have come of the recent manifestations on that mountain. Persons who claim to have been eye-witnesses declare that at midnight of the 3d inst. a huge column of black smoke shot up suddenly from Orizaba's crater to a great height above the mountain, seemingly followed by an eruption of fire and smoke, which, on reaching the atmosphere, assumed the shape of fantastic shapes, alarming the spectators. The phenomena lasted only a short time and ceased as suddenly as they began.

The following day the entire range, it is said, was shaken by an earthquake. It is probable that a scientific commission will be dispatched to observe the condition of the crater.

Wife-Murderer Garvin Pardoned.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 14.—Frank Garvin, serving a nine-year sentence for the murder of his wife, has been pardoned by Governor Hastings. Garvin was an artist on a Pittsburgh newspaper and a boy when he married Cora Redpath last August. On the second day after the wedding she announced that she was pregnant. A life of shame. The young husband was horrified and shot her dead at his feet.
